

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

THE P R E F A C E.

THE common Use of Spelling-Books evidently shews the Readiness of the Public to accept of every Help to render Reading more easy to be attained, and might be admitted as an Apology for adding this to the Number already published; but Custom may require somewhat further to be said in its Behalf.

The HOLY SCRIPTURES, being for most important Reasons taught in Schools, and read in Families; a Spelling-Book peculiarly adapted thereto, seems to be wanted to remove the Difficulty of Pronunciation, and to abate that Uneasiness, observable in Children, upon the Appearance of hard Words in their Lessons; which, as it is a great Impediment to their Learning, often creates an Aversion to Reading in those of riper Years; who, for fear of a faulty Pronunciation, neglect that Duty in their Families. Therefore,

As soon as it became my Province to teach, I immediately set about the following Sheets, being desirous to make the Task as pleasant to myself, and as profitable to my Scholars as I could, as nothing of the Kind had then been published, nor the Plan before attempted.

The Work is intended as an Assistant at Hand, to accompany the Learner through every Chapter; to explain the Pronunciation of the difficult Words, in order to make the Reading of the BIBLE more easy and agreeable in Schools and Families; to bring him into a Fondness for Reading, and embolden him to strive to excel in distinct, and graceful Pronunciation; and is offered to the Public upon the following Plan.

All the proper Names of two or more Syllables, and also, all the other Words of four Syllables and upwards, contained in the NEW TESTAMENT, are ranged in Columns, divided into their proper Number of Syllables, and accented, to shew their just Pronunciation; and in other Columns against them, are placed the respective Chapters and Verses: The Words are set down at the Verse where they first happen in Reading each Chapter; and if any Word is shewn twice or oftener in a Chapter, the Number of Times is shewn by a Figure placed at the End of the Word: The Use of the Figure is to save repeating of the Word (which would be a needless Swelling of the Book;) and caution the Learner to remember how to pronounce it right, as it is to be repeated in the same Lesson or Chapter.

In the OLD TESTAMENT, the same Method is pursued in the NEW; saving that many Proper Names, and Words, easy to be pronounced, and others which noted in the NEW TESTAMENT, and once or oftener in the OLD, (being supposed to be quite familiar to the Learner) are, no longer continued according to the Course of Reading, but placed in an Alphabetical Table at the End of the Book, to be referred to occasionally, which may rarely happen. Had all the Words been continued as in the NEW TESTAMENT, it would also have swelled the Book beyond the present Size and Price, and to little Purpose; yet the Table is inserted lest some might think the Book ~~imperfect~~ ^{useful} for want of it.

The Introduction is useful to ~~the~~ ^{the} Spelling and Reading in general, and may be learned by heart in small Portions, at the Discretion of the Master.

Two Tables of easy Words of two Syllables, and a Table of Words of three Syllables are added, as introductory to Reading Words of four Syllables.

A Table of Scripture Proper Names of one Syllable, (not being necessary to be ranged in Columns) is inserted that they may be learnt together.

Words marked in the BIBLE as Compound Words, have an Accent placed upon each separate Part, the better to direct the Pronunciation; as in Mā-ran-á-tha, Bé er-é-lim, &c.

When the Reader finds only a double Accent placed upon a Word, it is intended to shew that the Accent, or Strefs of the Voice must be laid upon that Syllable; as in Ba^{ll}-by-lon. But if he finds a Word with a double Accent and also a single one, then the Strefs of the Voice must be laid upon that Syllable where the single one is placed; as in Ge^{ll}-ne-rá-ti-on, in which Word, the Use of the double Accent (") is only to shew that the following Consonant is to be pronounced as if it were wrote double, or joined with the Syllable going before it.

The Reader may take Notice, that some few Words are differently wrote in some Editions of the BIBLE; as Nephtoah, Nephtoath; Chesalon, Chafalon; Hezron, Hezrom, &c.

This Method it is presumed will be found of more ready Use in Schools and Families, than if the Words had been placed in an Alphabetical Form, as the Learner might be necessitated to turn to the Alphabet, and open it in different Places (ten, or an hundred Times perhaps in one Lesson or Chapter) before he had found the Pronunciation of all the difficult Words therein, and might have forgotten one half, before he had learnt the other; whereas by seeing them all at one View, the Pronunciation may be readily acquired, before the Lesson or Chapter begun.

The I N T R O D U C T I O N.

 N the Alphabet are two Sorts of Letters, viz. Vowels and Consonants; a Vowel has a perfect Sound of itself; and without which there can be no Syllable; and they are six in number, viz. a, e, i, o, ~~u~~, and y, when it follows a Consonant, and sounds like i, or e; as in re-ly, re-li, di-rect-ly, di-rect-le, &c. all the other Letters are called Consonants; and are distinguished into Mutes, and Semi-Vowels.

The Mutes are b, c, d, g, j, p, q, t, v; and are thus named, because they cannot be founded without the Addition of a Vowel; as b, bee, c, cee, &c.

Semi-Vowels, or half Vowels are, f, l, m, n, r, s, x, z, and are so called, because they yield an imperfect Sound of themselves, without any Vowel being added; as, S is expressed by hissing, R by a quivering of the Tongue.

Four of the Semi-Vowels are called Liquids, viz. l, m, n, r; because they lose part of their Sound when other Consonants are joined with them; as in glide, smile, &c.

A Syllable is a compleat Sound of one Letter, as a, or more than one, as an, &c.

A Diphthong is the uniting of two Vowels in one Syllable; as, ai in plain, fair, Ai, Si-nai, &c.

A Triphthong is the uniting of three Vowels in one Syllable; as, ieu in Lieu, eau in Beau, &c.

A is not founded in Pharaoh, Pharo. A is sounded broad like aw, before ld or u; as bald, all, &c. and in Water.

B is not founded in these Words Debt, Debtor, Lamb, subtil, &c.

C sounds like k before a, o, u, l, and r; as in Cane, Cord, &c. and in proper Names, as Sceptick, Cis, Censhrea, Ce-dron, A-cel-da-ma, Sce-va, but is silent in Ver-dict, Scene, &c.

Ch sounds like k in Words derived from the Latin, Greek and Hebrew; as Christ, Christian, Chaos, Stotach, Ta-a-rach, Archip-pus, (Mel-chi-ze-dek) &c. except Schism, Schismatic, which are pronounced Sism, Sismatic, &c. Again, we pronounce Rachel, Cherubim, Tychichus, &c. and some read Mel-chi-ze-dek ; but in French words ch is pronounced like sh, as in Machine, Chagrin, Chevalier, Charlotte, &c. which are read Masheen, Shagreen, Shevaleer, Sharlot, &c. and sometimes like qu, as in Choir, Quire.

INTRODUCTION.

D is not founded in Wednesday, &c. The Termination ed is often abbreviated into t ; as burned, burnt, &c.

E is not founded in Heart, Dearth, &c. E final lengthens the Sound of the last Syllable, as in admire, blaspheme, &c. but always makes a distinct Syllable, at the End of Hebrew and Greek Words ; as Eu-ni-ce, E-pi-to-me, Phe-be, Sa-lo-me, Mam-re, &c. except where the Terminations are made English, as Eve, Tyre, Crete, Sap-phire, &c. also Lu-cre is founded Lu-cur, Massacre, Mas-sa-cur, &c.

F is founded like v in of ; as the King (ov) England.

G is not founded before m or n in the same Syllable ; as Phlegm, Seignior, &c. except Lign-a "ioes.

G before e, i, and y, is founded like j ; as in gentle, Giant, Gypsy, &c.

G is founded hard in most proper Names from foreign Languages, as Geba, Gilboa, Gibeah, Gelderland, &c. except George, Geoffroy, Egypt, &c.

The Sound of H is quite lost in John, Thomas, Dorothy, Ekher, &c. and at the End of Words after a Vowel, as Shiloh, Josiah, Jeremiah, &c.

I is founded like ee in oblige, Machine, &c. i is founded long in Hezekiah, &c. but short in E-li-ab, E-li-hu, &c.

L is not founded in Calf, Salmon, Lincoln, Bristol, &c.

M sounds like n, in Accompt, Account.

N is not founded in Kiln, Hymn, Column, Autumn, &c.

O is founded like a in Alloy ; like e in Women, and like u in Conduit, &c.

P is written but not founded in Psalm, Ptolomy, Receipt, Consumption, &c.

Ph sounds like f, as in Afaph, Pharaoh, Phi-le-tus, &c.

Q is founded by the French like k, as in Risque, Chequer, &c.

S is founded like z, in present, &c. but has no Sound in Isle, Island, Viscount, &c.

T is founded like s in Thistle, Whistle, Epistle, &c.

INTRODUCTION.

Ti in Greek and Hebrew proper Names keeps its own natural Sound, as in Shealtiel, Pelatiah, Phaltiel, Shephatiah, Adramittium, &c. but in English it is sounded si, or sh; as in Nation, &c. except in Celestial, pitiable, &c. &c.

U is sounded like e in bury; and like i in busy, Business.

W is not sounded in Sword, Swooning, Whore, wrong, &c.

X at the Beginning of Words or Syllables is sounded like z; as in Xenophon, Xerxes, Ar-ta-xerx-es, but at the End like ks; as in Wax, Xerxes, Ar-ta-xerx-es, &c.

It is observed by Dr. *Watts, that the learned Languages, as Latin, Greek, and Hebrew, have but few Diphthongs in Comparison of English; in Words derived from them, the Vowels are generally separated so as to make two distinct Syllables; as in De-ist, co-o-pe-rate, I-de-a, Ar-che-la-us, Em-ma us, E-phra-im, Zo-ar, Bar-ne-a, &c.

The Latin Diphthongs, as æ, œ, are sounded like e, as in Cæ-sar, Æt-na, Œ-co-no-my, &c. In the Pages of the N. and O. Testament Cni-dus, is sounded Ni-dus, Mna-son, Na-son, Bdelium, Del-li-um, Beth-haccerem, Beth-hakke-rem.

GENERAL RULES OF SPELLING.

1. A Consonant between two Vowels goes to the latter Syllable; as, Mo-ney, Na-ture, Be-la, &c. except x, and w, as in Ex-ile, ex-act, Flow-er, &c. and compound Words, as up-on, Pa-dan-a-ram, &c.

2. Two Consonants in the middle of a Word, that are proper to begin a Word, must begin the Syllable together; as De-fraud, E-phah, &c. These double Consonants begin Words; as br, ch, cl, cr, gh, &c. Also, dl, tl, and kl, are often used to begin Syllables, though they begin no Word; as, La-dle, Bot-tle, Knuc-kle, &c.

3. Two Consonants in the Middle of a Word, that are not proper to begin a Word, must be divided; as, Num-ber, Sham-gar, &c.

4. When two Vowels come together, not making a Diphthong, they must be divided; as, in Vi-ol, No-ah, Cre-a-tor, La-o-di-ce-a, Ma-ha-la-le-el, &c.

INTRODUCTION.

5. The Terminations ed, en, est, eth, er, ing, ous, ought to go by themselves in Spelling; as, wing ed, gold-en, know est, de-li-ver-eth, hear-er, ow-ing, Righ-te-ous, &c. except in blot-ted, glad-den, blot-test, blot-teth, Wri-ter, Wri-ting, mar-vel-lous, &c.

6. Compound Words must be reduced into their primitive Parts; as, up-on, in-to, ne-ver-the-less, per-ad-venture, Pa-dan a-ran, Beth-el &c.

7. If three Consonants meet in the middle of a Word, and are proper to begin a Word, they must also begin a Syllable together; as, in-struct, il-lu-strati-on, &c. If they be proper to end a Word, they may all be put to the former Syllable; as, Latch-et, Watch-er, &c. If the two last be proper to begin a Word, or the last of all be 1, they begin the Syllable together; as, Mon-ster, nim-ble, &c. If the two first of them be proper to end a Word, the third may go to the latter Syllable; as, kind-ly, re-fresh-ment, &c.

Of QUANTITY and ACCENT.

QUANTITY is the Distinction of Syllables into long and short. All long Syllables have a Diphthong in them, as Main, Heap; or the Vowel has a long or broad Sound, as Stall, Hope, &c. All other Syllables are short, as Hat, Map, Bank, &c.

The Accent (') is a particular Stress or Force of Sound that the Voice lays upon any Syllable, whether long or short; as o in ó-pen, Pen in pén-ny, Han in Hán-nah, &c.

Any Person that reads or speaks with wrong Accents, must read and speak disagreeably to the Ear, for "Accents not only give a pleasing Variety and Beauty to the Modulation of the Voice, but serve to ascertain the Meaning of the Word; as in préient and présént;" where the Word préient is a Noun, or Name, and présént a Verb, or signifies Action; yet they are both wrote with the same Letters, and so of many others, as is plain from the following Table.

Nouns.	Verbs.
To be ábsent	To ab'sent
An A'ccent	To accént
An A'ttribute	To attribúte
A Cément	To cemént

INTRODUCTION.

Nouns.	Verbs.
A Cóllect	To colléct
A Cómound	To compóund
A Cónduct	To condućt
A Désert, &c. &c.	To desért, &c. &c.

Note. The double Accent (") shew the following Consonant to be pronounced double; as, Ba"-nish, He"-rod, &c.

OF EMPHASIS.

WHEN we distinguish any particular Syllable in a Word with a strong Voice, it is called Accent; when any particular Word in a Sentence is thus distinguished, it is called Emphasis; and the Word on which the Stress is laid, is called the Emphatical Word. And the Emphatical Words (for there are often more than one in a Sentence,) are those on which the Sense of the rest depends; and these must always be distinguished by a fuller and stronger Sound of Voice, whether in the Beginning, Middle, or End of a Sentence.

Some Sentences contain in them more Senses than one, and which is the Sense intended, can only be known by observing on what Word the Emphasis is laid. For Example Shall you ride to London To-day? This Question is capable of being taken in four different Senses, according to the Words on which the Emphasis is laid. If it be laid on the Word you, the Answer may be, No, but I intend to send my Servant in my stead. If it be on the Word ride, the proper Answer may be, No, I intend to walk it. If the Emphasis is placed on the Word London, it is a different Question; and the Answer may be, No, for I design to ride into the Country. If it be laid on the Word To-day, the Answer may be, No, but I shall To-morrow. Of such importance sometimes is a right Emphasis, in determining the proper Sense of what we read or speak.

OF STOPS, MARKS, and POINTS.

THE Stops, Marks, or Points, used in Writing and Reading; are, a Comma (,) Semicolon (;) Colon (:) Period (.) Note of Interrogation (?) Note of Admiration (!) Apostrophe (') Hyphen (-) Parenthesis ()

INTRODUCTION.

Brackets, or Crotchets [] Paragraph (§) Quotation (“)
 Section (§) Ellipsis (—) Index (☞) Alterism (*) Oblisk (†) Caret (^) Diæresis, or Dialysis (··) Braces ({ })

The Comma is the shortest Pause or Rest in Speech, viz. while we can tell one; and is chiefly used in distinguishing Nouns, Verbs, and Adverbs; as, Neither Death, nor Life, nor Angels, nor Principalities, nor Powers, shall separate me from the Love of God. A good Man, and a learned. Sooner, or later, every Body must die.

A Semicolon denotes a pausing twice as long, and next to the Comma, is most frequent; it is affixed to such Parts of a Sentence as have one or more Commas in them, and which contain but a Part of the Declaration of the Subject. As the Shadow moves, and we do not perceive it; or as the Tree grows, and we do not apprehend; so Man, &c. And especially where there is a Sort of Opposition between the one and the other; as, And such were some of you; but ye are washed, but ye are justified, &c.

The Colon pauseth three times as long as a Comma; and is used when the Sense is perfect, but the Sentence not ended; as, Neither do Men put new Wine into old Bottles: Else the Bottles break, and the Wine runneth out, and the Bottles perish: but, &c.

A Period or full Stop, pauseth four Times as long as a Comma; and is set after the Sentence is compleat and fully ended; as, God is the chiefest good.

A Note of Interrogation is used when a Question is asked; as, — Have we not prophesied in thy Name? And in thy Name have cast out Devils? And, &c.

A Note of Admiration denotes some sudden Passion of the Mind; as, Hear, O Heavens! Alas! Alas! How is the City fallen!

The Pauses of the Notes of Interrogation, and Admiration, are the same as that of a Period.

An Apostrophe is set over a Word where some Letter is left out; as, 'tis, for it is, thro', for through, I'll, for I will.

An Hyphen is used to separate the Parts of compound Words; as Coach-man, Beer-sheba.

A Parenthesis is used to include something that is not necessary to the Sense, but brought in by the by, to illustrate

INTRODUCTION.

Illustrate it ; and must be read with a lower Tone of the Voice ; as,—for two (saith he) shall be one Flesh.

The Pause of a Parenthesis is the same as a Comma.

Brackets, or Crotchets, are used to distinguish such Words from the Sentence, which are an Explanation of the Word immediately preceding ; as, the little Word [Man] makes a great Noise in the World.

A Paragraph is used to shew where another Sense or Subject begins.

A Quotation is used when something is quoted or transcribed from another Author, in his own Words ; as an old Philosopher said, “ I carry all my Goods about me.

A Section is used for dividing Chapters of any Book into several Parts.

Ellipsis, or as some call it, a blank Line, is used when Part of the Word is left out, as P—— t, for Parliament; or when Part of a Sentence or Verse, &c. is wanting or omitted ; as —— as the Sparks fly upward.

—— and Shame from no Condition rise,

Act well your Part, there all the Honour lies.

Index, or Hand, points to something very remarkable, which ought to be taken Notice of.

An Asterisk, Asterisk, or Star ; also an Obelisk or Dagger, and other Marks, as †, ‖, &c. refer the Reader to something in the Margin, or at the Bottom of the Page.

A Caret is placed under the Line where some Letter, Word or Syllable is left out ; which is written above the Line, and must be taken in exactly where it points ; as,

heareth

A wife Son his Father's Instructions.

A Diæresis, or Dialysis, is placed over two Vowels, to shew they must be divided into two Syllables ; as Ideä

Braces are used to couple two or more Words or Lines together ; as $\left. \begin{array}{l} 4 \text{ Farthings} \\ 1, 2 \text{ Pence} \end{array} \right\} \text{make } 1 \left\{ \begin{array}{l} \text{Penny} \\ \text{Shilling.} \end{array} \right.$

It is likewise sometimes used in Poetry, when three Lines have the same Rhyme or ending.

• But the base Miser starves amidst his Store,
Broods on his Gold ; and griping still at more,
Sits sadly pining, and believes he's poor.

INTRODUCTION.

OF CAPITALS.

A Capital, or great Letter, must never be used among the small in the Middle or End of a Word, but at the Beginning of a Word. 1. At the Beginning of any Writing, Book, Chapter, Paragraph, &c. 2. After a Period or full Stop, when a new Sentence begins. 3. At the Beginning of every Line in Poetry, and every Verse in the Bible. 4. At the Beginning of Proper Names of all Kinds, whether of Persons, as John, Mary; Places, as York; Ships, as the Sea-horse; Rivers, as the Severn; Titles, &c. as King, Queen, &c. 5. All the Names of God; as God, Lord, Eternal, &c. 6. Quotation must begin with a Capital. 7. Remarkable Words may all be wrote in great Letters; as I AM THAT I AM. 8. The Pronoun I, and the Interjection O, must be wrote in Capitals; as I walk, O fie!

DIRECTIONS for READING with ELEGANCE and PROPRIETY.

BE careful to attain a perfect Knowledge of the Nature and Sound of the Vowels, Consonants, Diphthongs, &c. give every Syllable, and every single Word its just and full Sound. If you meet with a Word you do not know, do not guess at it, lest you get a Habit of miscalling it; but divide it in your Mind, into its proper Number of Syllables. Avoid Hem's, O's, and Ha's between your Words. Attend to your Subject, and deliver it just in such a Manner as you would do if you were talking of it. This is the great, general, and most important Rule of all; which, if carefully observed, will correct almost all the Faults of a bad Pronunciation. Children will tell a Story with all the natural Graces and Beauties of Pronunciation, however awkwardly they may read the same out of a Book * Let the Tone and Sound of your Voice in Reading be the same as in Speaking; and do not affect to change that natural and easy Sound wherewith you speak, for a strange, new, awkward Tone, as some do when they begin to read; which would almost persuade our Ears, that the Speaker, and the Reader were two different Persons, if our Eyes did not tell us the contrary. Take particular Notice of your Stops, and Pauses, but make no Stops where the Sense admits of none. Place the Accent upon its proper Syllable, and the Emphasis upon its proper Word in a Sentence.

* Watts's Art of Reading.

INTRODUCTION.

By observing the above Directions, you will avoid a MONOTONY in Pronunciation, or a dull, set, uniform Tone of Voice, which to a judicious Ear is extremely irksome and disagreeable.
